

DESIRABLE SKILLS/ATTITUDES

to WHEEL OF SKILLS

This is a list of desirable skills and attitudes for the WHEEL OF SKILLS exercise.

Please choose from the list (or add skills/attitudes not found below on the list) 8 which are – in your opinion most important in developing your financial satisfaction from running vocational activities in cultural and creative sector

Then please rank this 8 skills/attitudes according to level of your confident in them - from 0 to 5.

“0” means “not confident” and “5” - extremely confident.

	Management skills (the ability to manage yourself, time and other people successfully)
	Communication skills (e.g. the ability to sell ideas and persuade others)
	Ability to work both as part of a team and independently
	Ability to plan, coordinate and organize effectively
	Financial skills (such as book-keeping and calculating tax)
	Ability to research effectively (e.g. available markets, suppliers, customers and the competition)
	Ability to prioritise and set goals
	Ability to market and sell a new product or idea
	Self-motivation and discipline
	Ability to adapt to different situation
	Flexible
	Ability to think creatively and innovate
	Discipline
	Ability to multi-task
	Ability to take responsibility and make decisions
	Ability to work under pressure
	Ability to persevere through direct and indirect challenges
	Ability to compete
	Willingness to take risks (or at least not risk averse)
	Perseverance

	Ability to network and make contacts
	Ability to draw up a business plan for your business/venture
	Self-confidence
	Well organised
	Problem solving
	Talent
	Practical experience
	Training or qualifications in your art form or creative practice
	General education
	Research or the process of inquiry
	Internet skills and communication technologies including social media
	Marketing, branding and promotion
	Business skills and administration
	Managing intellectual property